The Song of the Cradle.
Bye, bye! Hope rises high; There's a sweet little cradle tongue up in the sky; A dear little life that is coming to pass;
Two tiny little hands that will pat and caress; A pure little soul whirling down from above;
A darling to care for, a baby to love.

One of the greatest agencies which enlighten Science
has discovered to relieve motherhood from excessive suffering is the
"Favorite Prescription"
devised by Dr.
R. V. Pierce,
chief consulting physician of the Hotel and Surgical Institute of Buffalo, N. Y.

This wonderful "Prescription" imbues the entire nervous system with natural healthy vitality; gives elastic vigor to the delicate organism specially concerned in motherhood, and makes the coming of baby entirely free from danger and almost free from pain.

"I wish to state that I have used Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription with very good results," writes Mrs. Katie M. Annis, of Hudson, New Hampshire. "I had been in poor health for over four years and had been twice in the hospital. My husband brought some of your 'Favorite Prescription,' and it has carried me easily through my last two confinements. We are now blessed with two healthy children, and I am sure your medicine has done more for me than all the other treatment I have ever received."

BAD HEADACHES generally arise from bad stomachs. Foul breath, bitter taste, coated tongue, sour eructations or belching of gas, are common symptoms though not all present in every case. To cure, take small doses, only one or two times a day, of Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, the Original Little Liver Pills, first put up by him over 40 years ago. One or two a laxative, three or four cathartic.

THE PEOPLE ALL

In Chorus Cried, Give Us Newbro's Herpicide.

This word of late has been in everyone's mouth, and many are wondering what the word signifies, though no one has yet been found, who will deny that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE does the work.
Well, for the information of thousands of people who like to know all about a good thing, we would say that HERPICIDE is a destroyer or killer of "Herpes." New "Herpes" is the family name of a disease caused by various vegetable parasites. A similar microbe causes dan-drel, itching scalp, and falling hair; this is the microbe that NEWBRO'S HERPI-CID promptly destroys; after which the hair grows. Sold by leading druggists, —10c in stamps for sample to The N. C. Co., Detroit, Mich.

FEARFUL CARNAGE.

A dispatch from the headquarters of the Japanese Third army in front of Port Arthur, dated December 30, says: After many weeks of patient toil by a regiment of the center division, the making of mine tunnels under the north wall of Rihlung Mountain fort through solid rock was completed, and the mines laid out December 28.

Without warning seven mines, containing two tons of dynamite, were exploded at 10 o'clock on the morning of the 28th. The spectacle was magnificent. The entire front walls of the fort seemed to be lifted into the air in a tremendous opaque curtain of earth and debris of all kinds.

There was no preliminary bombardment to give the Russians a hint of what was in store for them. Half the garrison perished as the result of the explosions and the subsequent charge of the Japanese. The force of the explosions was tremendous. The entire hillside was covered with earth and debris, and the moat was filled to a level with the broken walls of the fort.

In anticipation of a stubborn resistance by a large garrison, the Japanese before daylight pushed a large force into the trenches, where they remained concealed until the explosions took place.
The moment the mines were fired a whole park of siege guns opened a concentrated fire upon the fort, which was obscured from view by the bursting shells.

Under cover of this wonderful practice a large force in the nearest saps charged over the filled-in moat, and attacked the first line of Russian trenches, behind which were machine guns.

The Russians were thrown into the greatest confusion, and many of them were killed by the explosions. Nevertheless, they fought desperately, but were not able to withstand the number and determination of the Japanese, who passed over the broken walls like rats, in the face of a fire from the machine guns and the first line of trenches was captured after twenty minutes of awful fighting.

The fort was arranged in two levels.
In the lower level there were infantry in the trenches and upon the walls, and in the rear were machine-gun trenches, with a deep interior. In the center of the highest level there were quick-firing guns and heavier guns in the emplacements. In the rear of the higher level masonry were the concrete barracks, the magazines and the kitchens of the garrison.

When the Japanese captured the lower level in the first spirited charge they were not able to advance farther.
With splendid courage, however, the black masses of troops maintained their position, notwithstanding an awful concentrated fire from the fortress and from artillery in the forts of Anise and Euse mountains, across the gorge of the Shuifu Valley, and made a trench line from the broken walls to capture the machine-gun trenches and the lower section of the fort. Then they charged the higher level in splendid form, going up in twos and threes, until a large body had gained the crest of the northeast corner.

Before dark the walls of the higher level were black with men who had gained the interior in small parties, despite the awful fire. In the meantime more Japanese gained the higher level of the fort from the gorge at the west side.

The Japanese attacked in overwhelming numbers from all sides, but the renant of the garrison continued to fight with splendid spirit, contesting every inch of the interior.

Under cover of the darkness the Japanese captured the last sections and the barracks at 3 o'clock in the morning.
One hundred and fifty of the garrison escaped through the connecting trenches in the rear of the fort, which they destroyed by mines to prevent pursuit.
Three prisoners were taken and the others of the garrison were killed. The Japanese losses during the day and night were about 1,000 killed or wounded.

With the fort the Japanese captured four guns of large caliber, seven quickfiring guns, and two machine guns, besides others not yet counted. In the gorge at the rear of the fort they captured thirty quick-firing guns, which had been ready to repel any attack on the fort from the rear.

Before retiring the Russians set fire to the barracks and kitchens, which are still burning. Considering the enormous strength of the fort its capture at such small cost of life was a great success.

Mr. Wm. S. Crane, of California, Md., suffered for years from rheumatism and lumbago. He was finally advised to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which he did and it effected a complete cure.
This liniment is for sale by Gibson & Cimberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Tragic Discovery.

A tragic discovery was made at Pot-ney, England, in the gloom of Monday, when the body of a mother, who was clasping in death the lifeless little form of her babe, was recovered from the Thames. Walking along the riverside at the Ranelagh Club grounds a man noticed something dark floating on the water, but owing to the heavy veil of fog he could not distinguish the object clearly. Somewhat suspicious, however, he told the Thames police, and they rowed to the spot which he indicated.
They lifted the bodies into their boat, and took them to Mortlake Mortuary.
The mother was a woman apparently 27 years of age, dark complexioned and respectably dressed. There were no signs of poverty, but mental suffering was impressed upon her handsome features.
Her baby girl, locked in her arms, was also bound to her by a silk handkerchief around her waist. There has been no difficulty in identifying the victims of this pathetic tragedy. The mother was the wife of a London publican, had occupied rooms in Potney and left them but a little while before she was found in the water. "I cannot part from my child," she had written.

Cut Young Woman's Throat.

William Murphy, of Clarksburg, W.
Va., charged with cutting the throat of his former sweetheart, Mary Klupfner, aged sixteen, and seriously wounding the girl's father, sister, and two young women who went to the rescue, was captured yesterday after a desperate fight. Murphy was arrested by a constable, and while being taken to jail he jumped the Pike street bridge into Elk creek. Standing chest deep in the icy water, he defied arrest, and for over an hour held at bay a party of armed deputy sheriffs, constables, and police officers. He was finally captured after many shots had been fired and he had been beaten into insensibility. He was bleeding from many wounds, and his recovery is doubtful. The girl is in a critical condition.

The Bible in Turkey.

The Porte has at length replied to the notes of the American Legation and British Embassy regarding the sales of Bibles, and notwithstanding previous assurances the Porte refuses to authorize street sales. The Porte's notes, which are in identical terms, declare there is no doubt that agents of the Bible societies indulge in a propaganda in explaining the utility and use of the Scriptures, and as all propaganda are forbidden by the laws of the empire the action of the colporteurs brings them under the prohibition. Consequently, the government can no longer consent to the system of peddling Bibles, but must insist that the sales be confined exclusively to shops or the depots of the societies.

Night Was Her Terror.

"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs. Chas. Applezate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but when all other medicines failed, three 50 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 35 pounds." It's absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Price 50c, or mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., New York.

While there is life there is hope.

I was afflicted with catarrh; could neither taste nor smell and could hear but little. Ely's Cream Balm cured it.—Marcus G. Shantz Railway, N. J.
Cream Balm reached me safely and the effect is surprising. My son says the first application gave decided relief. Respectfully, Mrs. Franklin Freeman, Dover, N. H.
The balm does not irritate or cause sneezing. Sold by druggists at 50c, or mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., New York.

No More Stomach Troubles.

All stomach trouble is removed by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It gives the stomach perfect rest by digesting what you eat without the stomach's aid. The food builds up the body, the rest restores the stomach to health. You don't have to diet yourself when taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. J. D. Erickson of Alton, Mo., says: "I suffered heartburn and stomach trouble for some time.
My sister-in-law had had the same trouble and was not able to eat for six weeks. She lived solely on warm water. After taking two bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure she was entirely cured. She now eats heartily and is in good health. I am glad to say Kodol gave me instant relief." Sold by all druggists.
